Miraval Spa Trip in Arizona

By Anita Brown

Breathe deeply ... relax

Eat well ... relax

Enjoy good company ... relax

Experience a massage and classes ... relax

That was the path to Nirvana that seven EPWNG sisters followed for two glorious days at the end of June at the Miraval Spa in Tucson, Arizona.

Thanks to our excellent planner and travel agent, Linda Wolkoff, along with Phoenix EPWNG members Kyle Decker and Karen Egan, we met up at the Spa with Northshore members Wendy Baum, Bonnie Brickman, Susan Shulman and Anita Brown. In spite of desert temperatures exceeding 100

Announcements

This month we want to celebrate and thank the members of the Membership Recruiting Committee by sharing what they do and who is on the committee.

Membership Recruiting: The Membership Recruiting Committee develops strategies to target degrees, we all experienced wonderful morning walks, meditation, classroom and pool yoga, drumming, meditative Mala bead making, and a private demo and tasting with the Spa Chef. Of course, there were also unique massage experiences and facials, and a wine and cheese gathering.

Feeling good inside and out, establishing new friendships and anticipating future successful journeys filled our hearts to the max as we made our way home.
